RE: My Religious Exemption to the COVID-19 Vaccine

I am a Christian who believes in the New Testament, which teaches that:

“Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are...What? Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? I Corinthians 3:16-17, 6:19 (KJV).

Accordingly, I believe, pursuant to my Christian faith, that my body is a temple of the Holy Spirit. It is a God-given responsibility and requirement for me to protect the physical integrity of my body against potentially unclean food and injections.

The broad prohibition against consuming anything that might “defile” the body, and hence the conscience, is stated again in I Corinthians 8:7: “Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.” And yet again, in 2 Corinthians 7:1, there is this admonition against defiling the flesh and the spirit: “Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.”

This mandated vaccine, with its numerous additives and its novel mechanism for altering my body, is the equivalent of a prohibited “unclean food” contrary to my faith. This vaccine is to me what non-kosher food is to Orthodox Jews, and no one requires anyone in the United States to consume a substance contrary to his or her faith.

I am also submitting the signature of my spiritual leader and his contact information, should you have any further questions. He is willing to answer any questions you may have.

Sincerely,
